

Master Schedule of Events

Leadership Week is an annual initiative coordinated by Lead Scholars Academy and Lead Students Association with the support of the National Society of Leadership and Success, Omicron Delta Kappa, and many UCF departments and organizations. Leadership Week was created to identify, recognize, and develop leadership throughout the UCF community. It is a week of lectures, programs, workshop, and special events intended to engage its audience in many leadership competencies. The programs listed below are open to all UCF students, faculty, and staff. Follow up on Instagram: @ucflw23 or <https://lsa.sdes.ucf.edu/leadershipweek/>

Keynote Speaker: “Tales from the Zooniverse: Innovation Leading to Discovery” with Dr. Laura Trouille | Feb. 20 | 12 p.m.- 1p.m. | Zoom

The Zooniverse is the world’s largest platform for people-powered research, engaging more than 2.5 million people in over 100 projects, from tagging animals in camera trap images to marking cell structures for cancer research to transcribing historical documents to discovering planets around distant stars. Processing our increasingly large datasets poses a bottleneck for producing real scientific outcomes and citizen science - engaging the public in research - provides a solution, particularly when coupled with automated routines. Through this talk we’ll explore the key decision points that led to innovation and pushing boundaries in this space, and highlight a few of the stories of discovery.

Dr. Laura Trouille is vice president of Science Engagement and Visualization at the Adler Planetarium in Chicago, Illinois and co-primary investigator to Zooniverse.

Participants must pre-register to get access to the Zoom link.
